Review of Australian Standards. To keep abreast of progress in industry, Australian Standards are subject to periodic review and are kept up to date by the issue of amendments or new editions as necessary. It is important therefore that Standards users ensure that they are in possession of the latest edition, and any amendments thereto.

Full details of all Australian Standards and related publications will be found in the Standards Australia Catalogue of Publications; this information is supplemented each month by the magazine 'The Australian Standard', which subscribing members receive, and which gives details of new publications, new editions and amendments, and of withdrawn Standards.

Suggestions for improvements to Australian Standards, addressed to the head office of Standards Australia, are welcomed. Notification of any inaccuracy or ambiguity found in an Australian Standard should be made without delay in order that the matter may be investigated and appropriate action taken.

This Standard was issued in draft form for comment as DR 89079.

PREFACE

This Standard was prepared by the Standards Australia Committee on Hospital Textiles and Textile Products as a result of requests from the health and laundry sectors of the community. Agreement has been reached as to the best materials, shapes and sizes and colour of the linen.

This Standard specifies requirements for a number of general ward items that are used in health care facilities and institutions.

The fabrics specified for the manufacture of the ward items are as specified in AS 2892, Textiles for hospitals and institutions—Fabric specifications. This Standard is based on appropriate specifications for ward linen currently being used by Australian State Health Authorities.

This Standard is the first part of a series of Standards for health care facilities and institutions. The other parts in this series are as follows:

Part 2: Textiles for health care facilities and institutions—Theatre linen and pre-packs (published as AS 3789.2—1991).

Part 3: Textiles for health care facilities and institutions—Apparel for operating theatre staff (in course of preparation).

Part 4: Textiles for health care facilities and institutions—General ward apparel (in course of preparation).
